HOUSE VOTES TO ABOLISH COURT

WILL PROBE WHOLE CAREER

Judiciary Committee of the House Satisfied Archbald's Life Will Bear Inspection

WASHINGTON, May 9.—The house today voted 120 to 49 to abolish the new commerce court. About 40 republicans, including most of the progressives voted with the democrats to put the new court off the judicial map.

The vote was taken in "committee of the whole" and is practically final for the house, although another fight may occur when the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill is up for final passage.

The vote came after a series of bitter assaults on the tribunal and an unavailing fight on the part of the regular republicans to stave off the plan. The provision adopted today cuts off salaries and appropriations after July 1, and specifies transfer of much of the court's work to the federal district courts.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—Satisfied from the disclosures so far, that a most thorough investigation should be made of Judge Robert W. Archbald's entire judicial career, the house judiciary committee which is to determine whether or not impeachment proceedings will lie against the commerce court judge, recessed today in order to go over all the papers and evidence submitted by President Taft.

The committee will meet tomorrow with the expectation of continuing its sessions daily until all evidence is in. Meanwhile Edward J. (Option) Williams, Archbald's alleged partner in the culm coal deals, is detained, practically under arrest, in care of the sergeant-at-arms. Only a part of Archbald's business deals with Williams have been barred, it was understood. Tomorrow the committee expects to sound them all out. Several undisclosed transactions, said to involve Archbald, will be probed.

Afterward Archbald's attorney, A. S. Worthington, promises a grilling cross-examination of Williams.

Archbald to Testify

It was learned today that Judge Archbald will probably take the witness stand later in the inquiry. He will not be forced to testify but is said to intend a personal defense. Several witnesses will also be summoned by Archbald.

Today it was explained that if impeachment of Judge Archbald is the decision of the committee, his suspension from the commerce court bench pending trial before the senate would probably follow. It is predicted, if he is impeached, Judge Archbald will voluntarily offer his own "suspension."

Have Archbald's Confession

The committee has now before it Archbald's own confession, written on commerce court stationery, that he was interested with "Option" Williams in selling a culm coal pile of the Erie railroad at Moosic, Penn., to the "Laurel Electric line" of Chas. F. Conn.

This letter was written, Williams says, while Archbald had on his desk in the office of the Erie, the files in the New York "lighterage case" involving validity of rate rebates to various railroads for "lightering" cargoes across New York harbor.

Williams also says Archbald went to New York and asked Vice President Brownell of the Erie railroad to authorize the sale to Williams and Archbald of the coal property, when Captain May, manager of the Erie's coal deposits, held up the deal.

Williams also declares that William P. Boland, a Scranton coal operator, was also a party to the culm coal deal, while Boland was vitally interested as a defendant in a suit before Archbald's court. That Boland refused to discount a note for $500 given by Judge Archbald for a one-third interest in a million dollar timber transaction in Venezuela, and that later Archbald decided the case against Boland, are other serious charges by Williams.

MACK DENIED WRIT

NEW YORK, May 9.—Federal Judge Hand today denied the application for a writ of habeas corpus to prevent the extradition to New Westminster, B. C., of John McNamara, better known as Australian Mack.

TO ROW ENGLISH TITLE

MILWAUKEE, May 9.—Word was received here today by T. S. Andrews, that Dick Arnst, the world's champion oarsman, has arrived in England, prepared to race Ernest Barry, the English champion, for the championship, on the Thames.

Manufacturer Defends Corsets As Necessity

WASHINGTON, May 9.—Corsets were valiantly defended today before the house patents committee by Daniel Kops of New York, one of America's big gest manufacturers of big corsets, exclusively for stout women, who appeared in defense of the patent monopoly of corsetieres to fix the retail price of their products.

"Women now get their corsets fifty per cent cheaper than eighteen years ago," said Kops. "Before that, women did not wear corsets generally. Now hey are recognized aids to healt hand beauty—just indispensable."

Kops declared the corset business, built up by building corsets to build up women, should be protected by the patent privilege of fixing retail prices.

BURNS WINS IN SHERIFFS' RACE

MAN IS WANTED IN PORTAGE

Accused of Passing Owo Worthless Checks in La Crosse; Identified by Woman

In a race for a man alleged to have passed worthless checks, Sheriff Chris Burns, of this county, won over Sheriff F. Voth of Columbia, by twenty minutes yesterday, and as a result David Jackson, alias Charles Williams who declares his home is at Billings, Mont., is today awaiting trial before the La Crosse county court.

Sheriff Voth of Portage, started on the trail of his man and traced him to Winona. Sheriff Burns also started on the tracks of the same man and arrived at the Winona police headquarters and took charge of his man, twenty minutes before Voth arrived. Losing no time Burns proceeded to get his prisoner on Wisconsin soil without the formality of procuring requisition papers. Burns refused to tell how he managed this part of the capture.

When brought to this city last night, he was identified by Mrs. Ed Luedke as the man who had passed a check at the Luedke saloon on Ori J. Sorensen for $18.40 two days ago. A similar check was passed upon Mr. John Malin.

Ed Gray who accompanied Sheriff Voth identified him as the man who had passed checks in Portage and the police believe he is wanted at Dubuque. He will be arraigned before Judge John Brindley.

WALL STREET MEN SAYS COMMONER

Bryan Calls Harmon and Underwood Candidates Approved and Supported by Interests

LINCOLN, Neb., May 9.—William J. Bryan in his Commoner today delivered an editorial broadside at Governor Harmon and Congressman Underwood, declaring that their Wall street game has been exposed. Bryan says in part:

"The campaign for the nomination has now progressed far enough to enable the democratic voters to know the methods that are being employed by the Wall street crowd to capture the Baltimore convention. Mr. Harmon and Mr. Underwood are the reactionary candidates. The predatory interests are quite indifferent as to which of these gentlemen is nominated. Mr. Harmon was picked out first but 'big business' began to smile on Mr. Underwood as soon as it became evident Mr. Harmon was not making progress as a candidate. They have now divided up the territory in which they think a reactionary has a chance, and Mr. Harmon is running in a few states in the north and Mr. Underwood in six states in the south.

"There could be no clearer case of bad faith, and the fact that such methods are resorted to ought to convince any fair minded man that the reactionaries are not expecting to win by an open, honest fight, but by deliberate deception. A reactionary would find it impossible to win at a time like this, when so large a majority of the people are progressive; but the chances of a reactionary candidate would be still further weakened, if he were nominated as a result of a combination, between a few men running in different sections on local sentiment.

"Governor Harmon and Mr. Underwood are working both sides of the street, but their tactics are becoming so well known that they cannot hope to continue much longer even the small success that has attended their efforts."

REAL ESTATE IS HIGH AND ACTIVE

Transfers in City and County During Month of April Aggregate Quarter Million

CITY LEADS THE COUNTRY

Much City Property Changes Owners; Values Increasing Rapidly According to Thompson

More city property has changed hands during the last three months than during any similar period for several years according to the records kept by Andrew Thompson, county register of deeds. In this time, April was a banner month, the sales of city and farm property reaching nearly a quarter of a million dollars. The cause of increasing activities in the real estate market is due to the natural development of the city and county according to real estate dealers. Real estate has made a rapid advance in value within the last few years and is expected to advance for several years.

Declares Record Broken

Alderman Frank Roth, one of the active real estate factors in La Crosse, expressed the opinion today that conditions for the first four months of 1912 are better than during the similar period of any previous year in the decade.

"We have handled upwards of $63,000 worth of real estate during the last three months," said Mr. Roth. "Not in years has there been such a movement. In addition, rentals are in high demand. We get three calls for residence properties where there is one available residence for rent. The movement has not the appearance of a boom, but represents rather a steady and conservative demand. Notwithstanding this is a presidential year I do not look for any marked reaction. In my opinion, La Crosse has grown up to its capacity as represented by existing building, and its slow but steady and substantial growth as forged to a point marking the beginning of an epoch of steady demand and reliable valuations."

According to Register of Deeds Thompson's statement for the month of April there were sixty-one deeds filed aggregating an amount of $133,504. Of these eight deeds were transferred for a consideration of $1. The largest deal in the city involved $21,000, being the transfer of a group of lots to the state board of normal regents by F. W. Anderson. According to the plans of the board of regents, dormitory buildings will be built on these lots. The next largest deal was the sale of the W. W. Withee home to George H. Gordon for $13,500.

Forty-three mortgages on property in the city were filed involving an aggregate of $73,530. The largest of these mortgages was one on the normal school property for $20,900.

There were farm deeds filed totaling $107,868. Sixteen of these were for a consideration of $1. Thirty-nine farm mortgages were recorded, aggregating $107,868. These include three mortgages for $7,000 each. There were two farm deeds filed involving $10,000 each.

Among the deals of this month was the transfer of the Casper Anderegg farm and chese factory in Mormon Coulee, the town of Greenfield, to Louisa Nicolai. The consideration was more than $7,000. Mr. Anderegg expects to move to the west. It has not been learned whether the cheese factory will continue in besiness or be closed for a time.

Carl Zoreb has purchased the Conrad Bechtold home in La Crosse for a consideration of $3,500. There were several additional smaller transfers registered.

TRY TO END STRIKE

CHICAGO, May 9.—A meeting of representatives of the railroad managers and members of the freight handlers' union, 6,500 of whom are striking against railroads in Chicago, was held today in the hope of reaching an agreement under which the men would return to work. The meeting was brought about through the activity of livestock men.

BOISVERT FUNERAL TOMORROW

The funeral of Bernard W. Boisvert, who died at one of the local hospitals yesterday, will be held from the residence at 230 King street tomorrow afternoon at 2:30. Rev. D. C. Jones will officiate at the services. Burial will take place in Oak Grove cemetery.

POSTAL BANKS IN CITIES A SUCCESS

WASHINGTON, May 9.—Nearly half the total postal savings banks deposits in the country are in offices of the 32 largest cities, according to a statement of the postoffice department today. Of deposits aggregating $16,200,000 on March 31, $6,437,641 was confined to those cities. New York and Brooklyn together had $1,162,268, Chicago $902,841. Portland, Ore., is third with $407,547; St. Paul fourth, San Francisco fifth and Cincinnati sixth.

Deposits largely increased during March, the greatest gain being made by Columbus, Ohio, with 35.5 per cent. The average amounts deposited far exceed the average withdrawn.

One Boy In Jail Others Return Home

William Harrison and Roy Weigle, two of the three lads who are alleged to have burglarized the public library and to have later left the city with the intention of going to Portland, Ore., have returned to their homes. Earl Ledwith, the third lad who was implicated in the burglary is being held by the police at Chamberlain, S. D., on the charge of begging, according to the story told by Roy Weigle and Harrison, who arrived home last night is confined to his home, ill from the effects of exposure. The lads will probably be arraigned before Judge Brindley within a few days.

The three lads when arrested here previous to their running away confessed to having stolen $3.90 which they claimed to have lost on a gambling machine.

CONFESSES ORDER TO BURN PAPERS

Assistant Sales Manager of Wire Trust Calmly Admits he caused Destruction of Evidence

THOUGHT WAR WAS OVER

Says Reason Documents Were Burned Was that They Would Be Needed No Longer

NEW YORK, May 9.—A calm and positive admission that the evidence in the wire pool case was destroyed by his order was made today by Geo. A. Cragin of Worcester, Mass., assistant general sales manager of the American Steel & Wire company. He said he could not recollect the date he had the papers burned in the frnace of the Worcester plant, but thought it was last November.

Cragin was the first witness when the hearings in the government's suit to dissolve the Steel trust were resumed today. He said that he had represented the American Steel & Wire company in the wire pools engineered by Edwin Jackson, who is now in Europe. He received all of the evidence against the wire pool participants which was turned back to the steel trust for use by the government after Judge Archbald, now being investigated by congress, had imposed nominal fines on the participants in his office at Worcester. Soon afterward, he said, Frank Baackes, vice president of the company, came to the plant and asked him if the evidence had been destroyed.

"I told him," said Cragin, "that I would give the matter my personal attention."

Cragin said that the reason that he burned the papers was because he did not believe they would ever be needed again. He declared that so far as he knew the litigation was a closed incident, as all of the participants in the pool had admitted their guilt and had paid their fines.

SEVEN DROWNED IN BOAT PARTY

Body of One Woman Found Floating After Storm Swamps Overloaded Craft

WAUKEGAN, Ill., May 9.—The body of Mrs. Louis Hansen was found floating in Fox lake today, confirming the fears that all of the boating party of seven went to death in the storm that swept the lake last night. The bodies of the other six have not been found and as the boat is also missing, it is believed that the bodies went down with the boat and are entangled with it at the bottom of the lake. Dynamite will be used in an effort to bring the bodies to the surface.

Boatmen say that the little boat in which the party embarked had a capacity of but four and when the storm came up it quickly filled under its load of seven and went to the bottom.

The party had started in a launch to the Bay View hotel for an evening party. Screams and cries of help were heard shortly after the boat set out in the storm. The party proceeded without the seven guests. No trace of the missing persons had been found early today and search for the boat has failed.

The party included Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hansen, Jack Hoefer, Lewis Truschke and Mr. and Mrs. J. Hume, all of Chicago, and George Russell of Engleside, Ill.

JEER STATE POLICE

HAZELTON, Pa., May 9.—Eighteen state police arrived here to patrol the mining district. They were greeted with jeers when the alighted but there was no disorder.

ALL PREPARED FOR TAG DAY?

Twelve Hundred Girls and Boys to Search City for Persons Without Tags

IMPOSSIBLE TO ESCAPE TAGS

Campaign for Money for Visiting Nurse Expected to Net More Than $2,000

Twelve hundred ladies, girls and boys will be distributed throughout all parts of the city ready to tag the people of La Crosse Saturday. Every possible center and business place will be covered by watchful observers ready to pounce upon the unsuspicious passerby and "apply the branding iron." Loaded down with tags, the fair ones will start on their crusade at 7:30 Saturday morning and anybody that can escape being tagged before the game is called late in the evening, will be deserving of a gold medal.

Mrs. George W. Burton who is chairman of the committee in charge, today declared that the city will be covered so effectually that it will be practically impossible for anybody to escape. Two years ago today netted $1,500. Mrs. Burton declares that the committee will not be satisfied with less than $2,000 this year and that from all indications this amount will be raised.

Headquarters at "Y"

The taggers will make their headquarters at the Y. M. C. A. Sub-stations will be placed throughout the city and will be in charge of one of the committee members. Each station will be provided with a certain number of young ladies who will be stationed short distances apart so as to cover the territory effectually. There will be about fifty sub-stations.

Mrs. J. Westby will have a large number of girls and will have charge of the stores. The girls under her charge will make a complete canvass of every store in the city.

Mrs. F. C. Suiter will conduct the canvass of the factories and Mrs. D. MacMillan will have charge of the railroad centers and shops. Mrs. Ed Bartl will be in charge of the street campaign and Mrs. F. Cone will conduct the work of placing banners upon the automobiles and carriages.

Brass Band Parade

Arrangements are being made to have a brass band parade the streets during the noon hour and evening. The girls will work in relays of two hours, a fresh crew being sent out to relieve others while those who have been tying the tags will take a rest.

PIKE FRY SENT BY STATE

A shipment of wall-eyed pike fingerlings will arrive in La Crosse this evening for distribution in the nearby waters of the Mississippi. The shipment comes from the state hatcheries in answer to the applications recently sent in by members of the La Crosse County Hunting and Fishing association. It is expected that several more shipments will be made to this city in the near future.

ELECT "SQUARE SEVEN"

OMAHA, Neb., May 9.—Omaha elected seven commissioners Tuesday at the first election under the commission plan of government. About 90 per cent of the total vote was cast, and the "square seven ticket," representing the old liberal administration was elected over the citizens' union ticket, named by an organization formed for better government.

ALLEN TO TESTIFY

WYTHEVILLE, Va., May 9.—Floyd Allen, patriarch of the Allen gang, will take the stand in his own defense, according to plans formulated by his counsel today. This was practically the only hint given by his attorneys as to the course of their fight to save Allen from the electric chair.

DULUTH FOR I. R. AND R.

DULUTH, Minn., May 9.—The initiative, referendum and recall is today a part of Duluth's charter. Voting on the three propositions yesterday resulted in only two of 43 precincts declaring against the change. Of 6,669 votes, 5,331 favored the amendment of the charter.

MEXICAN CITY IS SCENE OF QUAKE

NEW YORK, May 9.—The New York News bureau this afternoon prints a dispatch from Mexico City saying that 34 were killed and half of the city of Zapotlan was destroyed by an earthquake late last night, and that 16 were killed at Ciudad Guzman, and 13 injured. It says 12 distinct shocks were felt, and that following the earthquake the volcano Colima became active for the first time in years, and is now throwing out vast quantities of lava and sand. Fears are entertained in Mexico City, the despatch states, that it will be followed by another earthquake.

Bryan Won't Be G. O. P. Dark Horse

LINCOLN, Neb., May 9.—William J. Bryan will not permit the use of his name before the republican national convention in Chicago as a compromise candidate. He sarcastically said so today in his Commoner. This is his editorial:

"No. Mr. Bryan will not be a candidate before the republican convention. It is true that he is more progressive than President Taft and less dangerous than ex-President Roosevelt, and it is probably true also that the president and ex-president would each rather see him president than the other, but he feels under no political obligations to either of them and is willing to let them fight out their differences, even if it splits the republican party."

BELIEVED TYPOS WILL NOT QUIT

International President at Meeting Urges Chicago Printers Not to Strike

THREATEN NATIONAL STRIKE

Pressmen Declare They will Call Out Fellow Workers All Over Country if They Do Not Win

CHICAGO, May 9.—Belief was general today that the striking unions who are at war with the newspaper publishers of Chicago will be compelled to make their fight without the aid of the typographical union. The printers at a meeting last night listened while James M. Lynch, international president, asked them not to go on a sympathetic strike, but declined to take a final vote on the question until Sunday.

Stereotypers' union today remained out in opposition to an order from International President Freel demanding that they return to work. No disorder was reported today and the sale of newspapers continued under police protection. The afternoon papers are more seriously crippled than the morning ones. Yesterday the afternoons issued only two editions and these were small and the work showed the efect of inexperienced men in the mechanical departments. The striking pressmen, it is asserted, are preparing to call out the union pressmen on association papers throughout the country if the local situation is not cleared up in the immediate future. The pressmen still insist that at the final vote they will have the assistance of the local typographical union and any effort to spread the strike to other cities will probably be delayed to await the meeting of the printers Sunday.

BLACK COSSACKS AROUSE MINERS

Pottsville Ripe for Riots Following Deaths of Mob Members Shot by the State Police

POTTSVILLE, Pa., May 9—"There will be more work for the Black Cossacks before we get through. Might as well be clubbed and shot as starved to death. Its quicker anyway."

This was the burden of the mutterings of hundreds of foreign miners who gathered in the big boarding houses and mountain shacks in Minersville today. They are bitter as the result of yesterday's shooting and clubbing by the state constabulary and continue to mutter threats of vengeance. The death during the night of Michael Mullange, one of the victims of yesterday's riot and the report that Davis Davis, the "innocent bystander" also shot, is in a dying condition, added to the bitter feeling against the black uniformed constabulary. Steve Milanko, the third of the men wounded was reported recovering.

Every road leading to the collieries was patrolled today by the heavily armed details of the state police. They rode in pairs, as it was considered certain they would be attacked during the day, but the foreigners remained indoors.

The disquieting feature of the developments here is the report of the hardware dealers both here and in Minersville that their stocks of revolvers, and ammunition have been exhausted during the last few days. These weapons are believed to have fallen into the hands of the Lithuanians who are swearing vengeance for yesterday's shooting.

COUPLE, 72, WED

FORT COLLINS, Colo., May 9.—William Fuller, 72, today took unto himself a blushing bride of sweet seventy-two, Mrs. Eliza Harrington. The couple were schoolmates in Cleveland, O., 43 years ago.

MORE TERRITORY FLOOD-COVERED

Crevasses in Louisiana Levees Widen and New Breaks Let in More Water

VANDALS ROB EMPTY HOMES

Thieves in Skiffs Dismantle Houses of Flood Refugees; Negroes Unworried by Situation

NEW ORLEANS, May 9.—Breaks, or the spreading of crevasses in the levees of the Mississippi or its tributaries within the past twenty-four hours, resulted in the flood situation being more serious today. At Torras about 1,400 feet of the levee embankment was washed away and the water is pouring through a crevasse 3,000 feet wide.

This will hasten the flooding of West Baton Rouge and Iberville parishes and deepen the waters in Pointe Coupee. Two breaks are reported at Moreauville and one near Longbridge. These crevasses will flood the most populous section of the Avoyelles and portions of St. Laundry parishes. Half of Moreauville is under water and Croupique and Bayou Jacques regions will be inundated. Then the waters will work down the portions of St. Laundry, and as the swamps and small water courses are already full, the back water will undoubtedly cause damage.

NEW ROADS, La., May 9.—The river tore out about 1,400 feet of the embankment above New Roads and the waters are now threatening the town. New Roads has been considered safe from the floods and hundreds of refugees have been brought here. Today, however, part of the town is inundated and hasty preparations are being made for flight.

The levee between the new break and the old one is fast crumbling away until now about a half mile wide.

Reports reached here today that vandals in skiffs and flatboats are breaking open and robbing houses from which the people have been driven.

Government motorboats are picking up the refugees still marooned in the interior and all are being cared for as rapidly as possible.

The majority of the negro refugees passing through here today were as happy as a crowd bound for a picnic. Fed and cared for by the government, they apparently gave no thought to the seriousness of the situation. It was only the old men and "mammies" of "before the war days" who showed any signs of emotion.

INDUSTRIALISTS LEAVE CITY

SAN DIEGO, Cal., May 9.—With crowds of members of the Industrial Workers of the World going north, the police today reported that the city had been cleared. All night long citizens armed with heavy clubs and riding in automobiles, aided the police in starting the last industrialist away. The city was quiet today.

BLESSES COLLEGE REUNION

CLEVELAND, May 9.—Bestowal of the papal blessing, cabled from Rome by Pope Pius X. marked the opening here today of the annual reunion of the alumni of the American College of Rome. Almost 200 graduates of the college, numbering among them some of the most famous bishops, and priests in the country, were present.

KNOX AT LOS ANGELES

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 9.—Secretary of State Knox arrived here today from San Francisco.

WEATHER

For La Crosse and vicinity: Fair tonight and probably Friday; somewhat warmer tonight.

For Wisconsin: Fair tonight and Friday, probably becoming unsettled by Friday night; warmer tonight.

For Minnesota: Fair tonight; Friday probably increasing cloudiness.

For Iowa: Increasing cloudiness with probably showers south portion tonight or Friday.

Weather Conditions

It is raining at a few widely scattered stations this morning but in general the weather is fair and with but little cloudiness e xcept along gulf coast and in the southwest. The temperature has risen slightly in the northwest and fallen in the lake region; elsewhere the changes have been small and somewhat variable.

The pressure is highest off the north Pacific coast where it is but slightly above normal; it is lowest in the extreme northeast and north of Montana.

The weather will be fair and somewhat warmer in this section tonight and probably Friday.

FORMER PASTOR TO VISIT CHURCH

Rev. J. L. Panzlau Will Speak at Epworth League Anniversary at German M. E. Church

The many friends of Rev. J. L. Panzlau of Charles City, Iowa, will be glad to learn that he will be in the city over Sunday.

The Epworth league of the First German M. E. church in celebrating its anniversary, invited the brilliant speaker and former popular pastor of the congregation to deliver a speech for the occasion.

The ever ready pastor consented to speak morning and evening. His topic for the morning will be "Service to God Manifested in Service to Man," and on the evening he will lecture on the subject, "Life's Inspiring Powers."

The Epworth league is to be congratulated upon having been able to secure the service of the well known and highly esteemed pastor. Large audiences are expected morning and evening.

Puts End to Bad Habit

Things never look bright to one with "the blues." Ten to one the trouble is a sluggish liver, filling the system with bilious poison, that Dr. King's New Life Pills would expel. Try them. Let the joy of better feelings end "the blues." Best for stomach, liver and kidneys, 25c. O. T. Erhart.

MOTHER IN PRIVATE

KIMMEL SAYS HIS PARENT REFUSES TO RECOGNIZE HIM AS HER SON ONLY IN PUBLIC PLACES

CHICAGO, May 9.—The man who calls himself George A. Kimmel and who was operated upon at Robert Burns hospital to restore his memory, today told a number of newspaper reporters that his mother had recognized him in private, but that she had told him she would not do so publicly.

"She said she could not afford to recognize me publicly," said the patient who is just recovering from the operation.

A man called at the hospital today and asked that a photograph of himself be sent up to the patient to see if he would recognize it. The doctors took the photograph showed it to Kimmel, who after studying it for a few minutes, said: "To be sure I know who that is. It's William Gardner. I used to play with him when we were boys."

At Kimmel's request the man was admitted to see him. They talked intimately of things that happened in Niles, Mich., when they were children, and Gardner said afterward that Kimmel recalled and talked of incidents that he had forgotten until they were mentioned.

We sometimes wonder if a poet doesn't feel sorry for people who have nothing but money.

AWAY WITH CATARRH A FILTHY DISEASE

A Common Sense Treatment Quickly Relieves All Distressing Symptoms

If you have any symptoms of catarrh, such as stuffed up feeling in the head, profuse discharge from the nose, phlegm in the throat, causing hawking and spitting, dull pain in the head, or ringing in the ears, just anoint the nostrils or rub the throat or chest wth a little Ely's Cream Balm, and see how quickly you will get relief.

In just a few minutes you will feel your head clearing, and after using the Balm for a day or so the nasty discharge will be checked, the pain, soreness and fever will be gone, and you will no longer be offensive to yourself and friends by your constant hawking, spitting and blowing.

Shake off the grip of catarrh before it impairs your sense of taste, smell and hearing and poisons your whole system. In a short time you can be cured of this distressing disease by using Ely's Cream Balm. This healing, antiseptic Balm does not fool you with short, deceptive relief, but completely overcomes the disease. It clears the nose, head and throat of all the rank poison, soothes, heals and strengthens the raw, sore membranes, and makes you proof against catarrh.

One application will convince you, and a fifty cent bottle will generally effect a complete cure. Get it from your druggist and start the treatment at once.

GERMAN PLAYERS FINISHED ARTISTS

Entertainment at Germania Hall Amuses Fair Sized Audience; Applause Greets Acts

Kleemann's Milwaukee German Theater company appeared last evening at Germania hall before a good sized audience. The playbill was a three-act comic play mixed with quite a number of vocal musical tidbits which were much enjoyed by the audience. The play which aims to simply amuse by a mass of ridiculously funny diologue and equally funny situations on the stage accomplished its object fully. The actresses and actors, Lizzie Forster, Clarisse Klerens, Paul Gehring, Gustav Kleemann and Conrad Bolten are thoroughly finished artists and gave their respective parts with real spirit and virtuosity. The audience seemed to enjoy the performance, as the applause was at every opportunity quite generous.

Bahnert's orchestra played pleasing music between the acts and Mr. Gustav Drohbegg played the piano accompaniments for the song numbers.

BEADLES SPEAKS ON PRODIGAL SON

Last night was normal night in the Beadles-Fisher services, being held at the First M. E. church. A large number of students were in the congregation to hear Rev. Beadles. Tonight the children's chorus under the leadership of Prof. Fisher will lead the singing. Rev. Beadles spoke on the Prodigal Son last night but did not speak along the lines universally adopted by speakers. He surprised his audience thoroughly by telling them he intended to give the Prodigal Son "a square deal." Then he proceeded to point out many traits of character in the Prodigal Son worthy of commendation. He pointed out that the old fashioned Prodigal Son did not use disrespectful terms in addressing his father as most modern youths would have done. In his request the son was only asking for his portion of worldly goods. He was ambitious and desired to start out for himself. Again when he failed and was without funds, he did not harass his father for more money but arose and went to his father. The services tonight begin at 7:45. The subject is "The Magnetic Man."

DENIES PLAN TO DELAY LORIMER CASE

WASHINGTON, May 9.—Stung by criticisms by the delay in submitting its report on the Lorimer case, Chairman Dillingham, speaking for the majority of the special committee, hotly denied to the senate any plan to let the question go over until next session.

Senator Bristow of Kansas precipitated the controversy. He called attention to the fact that three months had elapsed since the case was closed, and one year since the special committee was ordered to conduct the investigation. Dillingham angrily observed that he did not relish the senator's criticism, and that no attempt had been made to delay final settlement.

Senator Kenyon of Iowa, declared the minority report was ready, and criticised the delay of the majority. The majority held that Lorimer having once been cleared by the senate, could not again be called on to defend his seat in the absence of any new information.

You may have noticed that a kicker is usually headstrong also.

U. C. T. LODGE TO GIVE BALL

Knights of the Grip Will Dance at the Elks' New Club Saturday Night

The entertainment committee of La Crosse Council No. 94, U. C. T. A. have made all arrangements for an informal May Ball to be held at the new Elks' hall, 5th and State streets, Saturday evening, May the 11th.

The music will surpass anything the U. C. T.'s have ever had which, supplemented by the beautiful hall in the new Elks' club, should please the most fastidious. The proceeds of this dance will go towards defraying expenses of the U. C. T. baseball team to the Grand Council meeting at Sheboygan, in June.

A proper representation will not only tend to show that U. C. T. lodge is very much alive, but it will also be a big boost to La Crosse. Civic pride ought certainly prompt everyone to take a keen interest in this event.

The travelers will lay aside their grips, forgetting all business cares in meeting their brothers, families and friends in an evening of pleasant enjoyment.

CROWD CHEERS TAFT HELPING LITTLE GIRL

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio, May 9.—President Taft won the cheers of a great crowd here yesterday when he broke off his speech and with his own hand lifted to the platform the still white form of a little girl who had fainted in the crush about the stand.

The child was one of a group in white dresses carrying flags in honor of the president's visit.

When the president saw the little one crumple into a heap his face showed his sympathy. He broke off abruptly and stepped to the edge of the stage, held out his arms and said: "Hand her up to me." Taft's aide, Major T. L. Rhoads, an expert surgeon, quickly revived the child.

UGH! NOT CALOMEL, OIL OR SALTS, BUT DELICIOUS "SYRUP OF FIGS"

Give your stomach, liver and 30 feet of bowels a thorough cleansing without gripe or nausea. Ends headache, biliousness, indigestion and constipation.

This wonderful fruit laxative acts as a liver and bowel cleanser—tonic—not as an irritant. Its action is natural and gentle—no griping. It is delicious—no dreading. It is positive and prompt—no waiting.

If your stomach is sour and filled with vile gases, your head aches, or you are bilious, nervous, dizzy, half sick, your tongue coated, your thirty feet of bowels clogged with waste not properly carried off—don't wait. Surely take a teaspoonful of delicious Syrup of Figs tonight, and in the morning all constipated waste, sour bile, gases and poisons will move on and out of the system, gently but thoroughly—no griping—no nausea—no weakness. In the old days people let these matters run until they needed a large dose of physic, then they took something severe, like castor oil, salts or cathartics, that meant abuse to the bowels. These are the days of the gentle and natural—the days of Syrup of Figs. This way you are not drugging yourself. Syrup of Figs being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics can not cause injury.

Ask your druggist for "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," and look for the name, California Fig Syrup Company on the label. This is the genuine—old reliable. Any other so-called Fig Syrup is an imitation often meant to deceive you. Refuse such with contempt.

MANN FOUND GUILTY

ENGLISH LABOR LEADER CONVICTED OF INCITING BRITISH TROOPS TO MUTINY DURING THE COAL STRIKE

MANCHESTER, Eng., May 9.—Tom Mann, most militant of England's labor leaders, was found guilty in the criminal court here today of inciting troops to mutiny. He was immediately sentenced to serve six months in jail. Mann's offense was urging regular troops called for duty in the recent coal strike to refuse to shoot strikers or their sympathizers. He called attention to the fact that if they shot down the strikers and their sympathizers they would be shooting their own near relatives, and his speech made such an impression that general unrest was reported among the soldiers in a number of garrisons.

Mann was arrested charged with inciting to mutiny. When the trial opened today, the crown prosecutor produced numerous articles by Mann discussing the coal strike.

Mann objected to the introduction of much of the evidence and also to the production of the stenographic reports of his speeches. He conducted his own defense, but most of the rulings of the court were against him.

DEFENDS CATHOLICISM

PROFESSOR IN GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY DENIES METHODIST CHARGE CATHOLICS WOULD CONTROL SCHOOLS

WASHINGTON, May 9.—Professor John Conway of Georgetown university, a prominent Catholic educator declared utterly without foundation today the charge made by the general conference of the Methodist church at Minneapolis that Catholics were trying to gain "an ever increasing influence over the public schools of the country." He said that Catholics had no such intention. "I am surprised that such a capable body of men should put out any such misleading statement of this kind," he said. "The resolutions adopted by the Methodists are, I think, intemperate in tone and ill-advised. If the principle that the state shall not teach religion is to be regarded as forever settled, Catholics are willing to abide by it. But Catholics take the position that the state should allot the sectarian schools a fair proposition of the public funds which are used for education and not impose double taxation on those persons who desire their children to receive religious instruction. In the case of our parochial schools, we are perfectly willing that secular education in them should be under the supervision of state or government inspectors in the event that they receive state aid. This system is now in vogue in many provisions in Canada and in England."

RIVER RISING

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 9.—Both the Mississippi and Minnesota rivers are still rising rapidly and Forecaster J. N. Ryker said that there is not much doubt but that the Mississippi river will pass the high water mark of two years ago. This morning it had reached 10.4 feet, just two inches lower than the high water mark of 10.6 feet of two years ago. According to the weather man there is not much danger of a flood as there is still three feet and a half to go before the flood mark is reached.

HONDURAN TREATIES REJECTED

WASHINGTON, May 9.—Proposed treaties with Honduras and Nicaragua by which their finances were to be reorganized with money loaned by U. S. syndicates and their revenues handled by the United States officials, were rejected by the senate foreign relations committee today. A motion that the committee report in favor of ratification was lost by a tie vote—seven to seven. Nothing more will be heard of the treaties during the present session.

A New Face Without Surgical Skin Peeling

"I do not approve of the surgical operation of face peeling," says Julia Orff. "It's too radical, too often dangerous. There's a better way of removing offensive complexion and one that is entirely safe and rational. Ordinary mercolized wax causes the devitalized scarf skin to come off, but gradually and gently. Unlike the surgical process, the skin is not forcibly taken off big pieces all at once, but almost invisible flaky particles are absorbed by the wax, and from ten days to two weeks are required to complete the transformation. There's no pain, no discomfort.

"Nature renews complexions the same way, shedding tiny cutaneous scales day by day. But deficient circulation, or other abnormal condition, may interfere with the shedding—a 'bad complexion' results. Then mercolized wax assists Nature by hastening the removal of the aged, faded or discolored top skin. Thus only the lively, young, healthy-hued skin is in evidence, as in robust girlhood. This is why mercolized wax produces the indescribable beauty of ever-renewing youth. The wax is put on at night like cold cream, and washed off in the morning. You can procure it at any druggist's; an ounce is sufficient."

THE JEWS A GREAT PEOPLE

It is one of the most reassuring indications of our advancing civilization that the anti-Jewish prejudice in America is rapidly disappearing.

When the world stood shocked at the Titanic catastrophe, grief stricken over its tragedy, transfixed by its examples of heroism, that which stood out as the most inspiring of all its compensating incidents was the glorious spectacle of Isador Straus standing upon the deck, relinquishing life without a murmur, beside the venerable man his aged wife, choosing his company in death as in life.

Straus was an extremely wealthy Jew.

The thrift of the Jews is one of their strong characteristics, but so intense has been the prejudice of the past that this trait which is recognized as a virtue in men of other nationalities and faiths has in the case of the Jew been pointed to with a sneer. Palpably unjust, and certainly not enlightened, this illogical discrimination.

But what was said of Straus? That he was a man of riches, a capitalist, a commercial giant?

No; Turn to The Outlook, that champion of the better things of civilization.

"Isador Straus, THE GREAT PHILANTHROPIST!"

That is what The Outlook said. That is what all the better class of papers and magazines said. And THEY NEVER MENTIONED HIS MONEY. His wealth was not the big thing about him. He acquired it honestly, and used it for the good of humanity.

Straus is but an example. He is one of many who prove the courage and the other virtues of the Jews.

The Outlook and other publications of the day, by recognizing and commending these virtues of a representative Jew, prove that our civilization is at last equal to the duty of discarding a wicked prejudice and of measuring every man for what he is.

Recently Leslie's Weekly discussed Jewish characteristics, laying emphasis upon the fact that the Jew of this day seldom becomes a public charge. The race takes care of its own. It has established many institutions for the care of orphans, the sick, the aged and the poor. One of the youngest of its charities, operating chiefly n New York, is the Hebrew Sheltering and Immigration Aid society, the third annual report of which is at hand. The objects of this society are to facilitate the landing of Jewish immigrants at Ellis Island, New York harbor, to provide them with temporary shelter, food, clothing and other aid deemed necessary; to prevent them from becoming public charge, and help them obtain employment; to discourage their settling in congested cities by opening opportunities for them throughout the country in industries, agriculture and commercial pursuits; to disseminate knowledge of United States immigration laws in European centers of emigration, to prevent an influx of undesirable persons, and by lectures and literary means to foster American ideals and instil patriotism in the new comers of the race. Is this not a comprehensive and admirable series of efforts? It is demonstrated by Leslie's that no other people whose numbers are becoming largely increased here by immigration shows such a combination of charity and ability to administer it.

OHIO PROHIBITS THE CAMPAIGN CIGAR

Occasionally a legislature does something that is worth while. This does not happen so frequently that it should escape mention. In Ohio the legislature recently enacted a law prohibiting a candidate from giving away election or campaign cigars. By passing that law the legislature earned the expenses of the entire session, for it is a law that is eminently worth while.

The campaign cigar, along with the speeding automobile, the Turkish cigarette, the tornado, the earthquake, the fire damp, the yellow fever microbe, the bookworm, the opium joint, and the Gila monster, is a menace to civilization and domestic happiness. It has been alloked to become a habit and to spread its odious personality broadcast. It has worked itself into the life blood of our republican form of government, like an insidious disease. There are times during a campaign when a wife dreads to have her husband come hime, for he comes laden with the aroma which resembles a combination between a second hand New England boiled dinner and the glue factory.

There is no candidate who is going to spend much for the cigars he gives away. He realizes that men do not always vote for him without the cigar. The chief value of these cigars is to add a sort of grim and inconquerable political hatred. They are of rope filler and brown paper wrapper and they stir up a feeling of belligerency which not even a leaky campaign torch or a two-hour campaign harangue can accomplish.

The campaign cigar is a delusion and a snare. They ruin the digestion of the constituent and create trouble in his household and they detract directly from the popularity of the candidate. The Ohio legislature is to be thanked by all parties concerned. While it has not reached the mark set by Wisconsin's new corrupt practices act, it has moved in the right direction.

GO TO THE GAME AND EAT PEANUTS

It is estimated that the people contribute something like twelve million dollars annually to baseball. This is a large sum, but it is well spent.

The game draws office and store clerks and workingmen out into the fresh air and sunshine and, consequently, makes them better folks and more profitable to their employers. It draws the employers out there, too, away from their worries, and makes them better employers.

Americans work too fast, live too fast. Brains or hands are under a strain all the time. There is more relaxation and health on a regular bleacher seat than can be got in forty drug stores or doctors' offices. Conservation of natural resources, on which the nation spends tens upon tens of millions, is a great thing, but conservation of human energy is a greater.

"Go to the game," is sound medical and moral advice. Never mind if you don't understand the fine points. Go out and eat peanuts and watch your compatriots when they haven't anything on hand but the glorious task of "rooting."

Princeton will open a farm for poor students. That is to say, a farm for students who have no money. No farm could be large enough to accommodate the other kind.

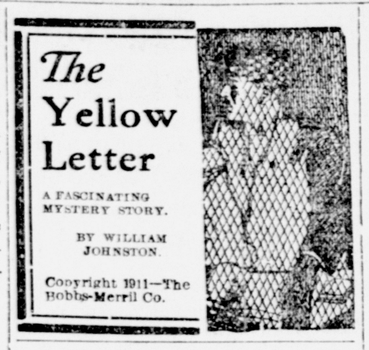
DESPERATE FOR DEATH

DETROIT, Mich., May 8.—Leaving a note addressed to her mother in Cleveland, Ohio, in which she said she was despondent, Mrs. Grace Daravitch, 22, attempted suicide in a rooming house here yesterday by swallowing horse liniment. After being revived at the hospital the girl leaped from the operating table wrapped a sheet around her and fled into the street. She was captured after a hard chase by a patrolman.



"It's burglars, that's what it is," said an excited youngster. "I saw them at work. I come along here last night and there was a flash, like from a dark lantern. Right in there behind the boxes, it was. They must a been at work then. I'll bet they killed him and hid his body and made away with all the money and stamps."

"How many of them were there?"

"Did you see them?"

"What time was it?"

Questions poured thick and fast on the youngster, who evidently had told all he knew and a little more. I took advantage of the furor his story had created to slip around to the rear of the building, where I found a self-appointed committee of citizens and the constable guarding the door.

"Has anything been stolen?" I aswed.

"Not as far as we can discover," said the constable. "There ain't no disorder about the place and the safe hasn't been busted, as far as I can see. I ain't made any regular investigation, being as this is government property."

"Has no one any idea where the postmaster is?" I asked.

"That's just what we've been trying to find out. Jim, here, as soon as we found Rouser was not here, went up to the Widow Smith's, where he boards. Thought maybe he'd just overslept or something like that, or maybe was sick. But Mrs. Smith went up and looked in his room and come down and said he hadn't been home all night."

"Yes," interrupted Jim, "and what's more, she said it was nothing unusual for him not to come home. There was lots and lots of nights recently when he didn't show up. She had no idea where he spent his nights. She's a woman that minds her own business and don't interfere none with her boarders' goings and comings as long as they pay their money regular."

"What are you going to do about keeping the office open?" I asked, much puzzled over this new mystery. How I wished for Davis! Mystery seemed to be piling on mystery with every step I took. Beyond the one conviction I had that Hugh Crandall was in some way to blame for it all, I saw nothing that would help me in my undertaking.

"We've arranged about that. We've sent for Jennie Cox to come over and take charge. She always takes hold when Charlie Rouser wants to take a day or a half-day off. She knows the combination of the safe and the money-drawer, and has been sworn in as special assistant. She'll know what to do and who to notify."

"It may interest you to know that Postoffice Inspector Davis will be out here tonight," I told them. "I left him in New York last night, and he promised to join me here."

Suspicion flashed into the faces of all my auditors.

"Maybe that's why Rouser has disappeared," suggested the constable. "He's been spending a lot of money lately, Rouser has. Maybe he knew the inspector was coming and was short in his accounts."

"He couldn't have known it," I protested. "The inspector himself didn't know he was coming here until late yesterday afternoon, and there isn't any way possible that the postmaster could have been advised of his coming."

The arrival of the substitute official diverted the conversation. Miss Cox, an unimaginative, unattractive woman of thirty, in a most matter-of-fact way entered the building and took charge.

"The first thing," she said as she calmly hung up her hat and coat, 'is for all you men to get out here so that I can sort the mail."

Even the constable moved toward the door, impelled by the authority in her tone and his own respect for government property. I determined not to be routed so easily. It seemed to me that the occasion afforded me an excellent opportunity, not to solve the mystery of the missing postmaster, but to work out one of my own puzzles—who it was that had rented Lock Box 17.

"Miss Cox," I said, "as a personal friend of Postoffice Inspector Davis, who is to join me here in a few hours in connection with an important matter, and for your own sake as well, I would suggest that you should keep at least two of us here as witnesses. This is government property. The postmaster has disappeared and some of the government's proerty may be missing. If your inspection is made in the presence of two witnesses there can be no question about your statement of the condition in which you found things. I really think it is a necessary precaution. I would suggest that two of us, say the constable and myself, be permitted to remain as witnesses."

"By ginger, he's right," said the constable, whose attitude toward me at once became one of decided friendliness.

"Maybe I had," said Miss Cox. "You two may stay, but the rest get out."

With a narrow sense of duty she insisted on sorting the morning's mail before she made any investigation. Meanwhile the constable and I discussed the case. From him I learned that Rouser, the postmaster, was a likable young fellow of twenty-five or six, who had held the office for two or three years.

"The way he come to be postmaster was this: His father had represented this district in Congress for twenty years or so before he died. The old man was an able citizen, but never had accumulated much money, though he gave the boy a good education. Charlie, however, wasn't much good. He was bright and smart enough, but he seemed to lack the git-up and git-to-do for himself. After his father died he lived on the little money left him till it was all gone and then just drifted around, getting a meal where he could and his clothes growing shabbier and shabbier. The women folks all liked him and was always trying to find something for him to do. He'd work if he had it, but he wasn't the kind of a fellow to be teaming or gardening or trucking, and it was the hardest sort of a job to find something that would suit him. The old postmaster died and the politicians was about equally divided as to who was entitled to the place. They didn't seem able to agree on no one. Then somebody suggested Charlie Rouser, some of the women folks I guess it was, and first thing you know he had it.

"It don't pay much, only six hundred a year, but Charlie don't drink and don't gamble, so he's been able to get along on that well enough, and he ain't made a bad postmaster. He's a weak youngster and easily led, and if he'd ever got into bad company I can see his finish. Lately I've noticed he seemed to be spending a lot of money, though where it came from, if the books is all straight, is more than I can imagine."

He's Lonesome

I watch the windows as I go,
With other passers to and fro,
Wherever there are hats displayed
To tempt the eye of wife or maid.
To have a hope I fear to name
That new styles will not be the same
As present styles are. Soon I'll see
If new styles make a hit with me.

I love to see a roguish maid,
Also a matron, well arrayed,
Who in sweet dignity goes by;
The fairest thing beneath the sky
Is a fair woman. Yet, I say
It has been many a lonesome day
Since the day when, by fashion's grace,
I looked upon a woman's face!

Oh, no your question makes me smile—
I've not been on a desert isle,
Nor known the danger and the stress
Of life in some wide wilderness.
I have met women every day,
In crowded street, in country way;
Yet each hat squatted in its place
And thus concealed each woman's face.

For years, it seems, the girls have gone
Like candles with the snuffers on—
Tall girls, short girls, girls fat or thin,
Yet sometimes I have seen a chin,
By looking quickly; more than that
Is always hidden by the hat!
Talk not of Turks! Woe'll fill my cup
If this year's brims do not turn up!

The fact that corporal punishment is discouraged in the public schools of Chicago is what led Bobby's teacher to address this note to the boy's mother:

Dear Madam: I regret very much to have to tell you that your son, Robert, idles away his time, is disobedient, quarrelsome and disturbs the pupils who are trying to study their lessons. He needs a good whipping and I strongly recomend that you give him one.

KILLS A MAN ON HIS FIRST TRIP

A. M. Langer, North Side Engineer on Burlington, Runs Over Youth Near Galena

Although there is no talk of holding him responsible for the death, Amos M. Langer, 118 George street, who killed a man near Galena on his first run as a Burlington engineer, is still broken up over the accident.

Langer was backing slowly with a short train at Munrry's Hollow, near Galena, Tuesday afternoon, when he noticed a man's hat on the ground beside the track. He stopped his engine and investigated. The body of William Smith, 20, a cabman on the Burlington, was found under the wheels of the engine, the tender and one of the trailer wheels of the locomotive having passed over him.

It is believed, although no one saw the accident, that young Smith tried to board the running board of the tender as it passed him and missed his grip. He was returning from a fishing trip.

The body was taken to Galena, where Coroner Weirch, Stockton, was notified. An inquest will be held, but there is no question that the crew of the work train will be exoneratod. Conductor William B. Burnmaster, 1833 Wood street, was in charge of the train.

CARLETON SPEAKS ON "PAYING THE PRICE"

The tent meetings at the corner of West avenue and Jackson streets continue with increased interest. The Rev. G. Sydney Barber, pastor of the Viroqua Methodist Episcopal church, led in prayer. Rev. Ray Smith and Miss Bessie Cutting sang a duet, "Does Jesus Care," and Miss Marie Nowak rendered the solo "I Am Happy in Him."

Evangelist Carleton gave another powerful discourse, this time upon the subject "Paying the Price." The facts he cited from history, both profane and sacred, were convincing and his manner of presenting them interested all.

"The very flag which waves above our land tells the story of suffering the awful price of blood that was aid, the blood of thousands of men who sacrificed their lives for the freedom you now enjoy," he said.

"It is simply a question of paying the price. Every world's attainment must be paid for."

Rev. Carleton will speak on the subject "Quit Your Meanness" at tonight's meeting.

PRETTY WEDDING FOR LOCAL COUPLE

A pretty home wedding last evening was that of Miss Margaret Skagen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Skagen, and Carl F. Findeisen of North La Crosse. The ceremony was performed at the home of Mrs. E. A. Stauffer, 1715 Loomis street, at 8 o'clock, Rev. Witter reading the service.

Miss Agnes Skagen, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Anton Johnson served as best man.

The bride's gown was white voile trimmed with Irish lace, and she carried a bouquet of bride's roses and white carnations.

Only immediate members of both families were present. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Findeisen will reside on North Ninth street.

RESISTS ARREST, HE IS SHOT BY OFFICER

ST. LOUIS, May 9.—"He said he would die before he would let me arrest him, and he did."

This was the laconic statement of William Rollins, negro policeman of National City, Ill., today who described how he shot and killed John Tompka, white, while trying to take him to jail. Tompka died three hours after Rollins shot him between the eyes.

In resisting arrest Tompka slashed the negro policeman's hands with a knife. A rigid investigation is promised at the inquest. Rollins says that when he tried to take Tompka the latter said: "Ne negro can arrest me." Tompke was wanted on a minor charge.

OPSAHL FUNERAL TO BE SATURDAY

The funeral services of Mrs. O. S. Opsahl, 1512 Charles street, who died yesterday afternoon at the Lutheran hospital, will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 from the house, and at 3 o'clock from the Norwegian Lutheran church. Rev. E. O. Vik will deliver the funeral address.

Mrs. Opsahl's death was the result of an operation. She was 49 years old. She is survived by her husband, an employe of the La Crosse Plow company, and seven children.

MIDWAY COUPLE IS WED IN LA CROSSE

Miss Georgie Cronk and George Freeman, both of Midway, were married at 4:30 yesterday afternoon at the Caledonia Street Methodist parsonage by Rev. A. V. Ingham. They left on a short wedding trip, soon after the ceremony, and will make their home in Midway.

FORMER SENATOR SHOOTS HIMSETF

Christian A. Koenitzer, Once State Solon, Arrested on Statutory Charge, Takes Own Life

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 9.—Christian A. Koenitzer, aged 60, former state senator, shot himself in the right temple in a rear room of his saloon at 3031 North avenue, yesterday afternoon.

The suicide is believed to have been prompted by the fact that two statutory charges were pending against him.

One was an assault charge in which Ida Hart, aged 14, was the complainant.

The other was a charge of adultery. Blanche Ottenheimer, aged 24, has been held at the county jail with Koenitzer on this offense.

One hour before Koenitzer ended his life she was released on bail provided by her mother.

Koenitzer had agreed to plead guilty this morning to the charge brought by the Hart girl. The offense was committed on July 26, 1911.

ENGINE ON WISCONSIN TRAIN ON NORTHWESTERN JUMPS TRACK AND HOPS BACK AGAIN

APPLETON, Wis., May 9.—The northbound passenger train on the Wisconsin division of the Chicago & Northwestern, due in Appleton about midnight, had a narrow escape from a bad wreck when two of the drive wheels of the locomotive left the track two miles this side of Little Chute.

The engineer of the train, realizing that the locality was a dangerous one, continued under reduced speed with the two drive wheels pounding along on the ties for a distance of three miles, when in some unaccountable manner the wheels jumped back onto the track.

Great credit is given the engineer for his presence of mind in not attempting to stop the train. Had he done so, a bad wreck would have resulted.

The accident was one of the most peculiar ever experienced and is said to have been due to the soft condition of the roadbed from the recent heavy rains.

Danderine

Stops Falling Hair and Destroys Dandruff

Makes the Hair Grow Long, Heavy and Luxuriant and We Can Quickly Prove It

If You Wish to Double the Beauty of Your Hair at Once, Just Get a 25 Cent Bottle and Try This

Surely try a Danderine Hair Cleanse if you wish to immediately double the beauty of your hair with little trouble and at a cost not worth mentioning—just moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, this will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or any excessive oil—In a few moments you will be amazed. Your hair will be wavy, fluffy and abundant and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Besides beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of Dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. It's exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow abundantly long, strong and beautiful. It at once imparts a sparkling brilliancy and velvety softness to the hair, and a few weeks' use will cause new hair to sprout all over the scalp. Use it every day for a short time, after which two or three times a week will be sufficient to complete whatever growth you desire.

You can surely have pretty, soft, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will just get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.

RICHESON NOT A MORMON—SMOOT

WASHINGTON, May 9.—Published statements that Rev. C. V. T. Richeson, convicted murderer of Avis Linnell, was a Morman layman, brought forth vigorous denial by Senator Smoot, himself an official of that church, in a statement made public yesterday. "The statement of Mrs. Louise E. Brittain that Rev. Richeson is an elder in the Mormon church is a falsehood," Smoot declared. "He is not and never was even a member. I am informed that Mrs. Brittain was excommunicated a few years ago. A desire to injure and cast reflections upon the church is undoubtedly her reason for making the statement."

COLLEAGUE CHARGES MAN WITH SLANDER

WASHINGTON, May 9.—Shaking his fist at Minority Leader "Jim" Mann, Representative Madden (Rep., Ill.) today denounced him from the "well" of the house floor. He charged Mann with making a "slanderous statement." Madden's fiery denunciation of his colleague was provoked by an interview by Mann in a Chicago newspaper charging Madden with "treachery" to the republicans, during the recent debate on the post-office bill. It was charged that Mr. Madden prevented Mann from offering a substitute parcels post amendment.

THE FIRST GRAY HAIR SIGN OF AGE
Easy Way to Preserve Natural Color of the Hair and Make It Grow
A harmless remedy, made from common garden sage, quickly restores gray hair to natural color The care of the hair, to prevent it from losing its color and lustre, is just as important as to care for teeth to keep them from discoloring. Why spend money for cosmetics and creams to improve the complexion, and yet neglect your hair, when gray hair is even more conspicuous and suggestive of age than wrinkles or a poor complexion? Of the two, it is easier to preserve the natural color and beauty of the hair than it is to have a good complexion.
All that is necessary is the occasional use of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of common garden Sage and Sulphur combined with other valuable remedies for dry, harsh, faded hair, dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair. After a few applications of this simple, harmless remedy, your hair will gradually be restored to its natural color, in a short time the dandruff will be removed, and your hair will no longer come out but will start to grow as Nature intended it shold.
Don't neglect you hair, for it goes further than anything else to make or mar your good looks. You can buy this remedy at any drugstore for fifty cents a bottle, and your druggist will give your money back if you are not satisfied after using. Purchase a bottle today. You will never regret it when you realize the difference it will make in your appearance.

MILWAUKEE PRIEST RESIGNS HIS CHURCH

RACINE, Wis., May 9.—Rev. Stephen Trant, for twenty-six years pastor of St. Patrick's church in this city, has tendered his resignation to Archbishop Messmer of Milwaukee and will spend his remaining days at his sister's home in Prairie du Chien, Wis. Rev. Trant has been in the priesthood for over forty years, serving ten years as assistant pastor at Highland, Wis., and also being in Fond du Lac four years before coming to Racine. He is about sixty-eight years of age.

Members of St. Patrick's congregation are planning a grand farewell reception for the retiring pastor and also are planning to engage a special car to take him to Prairie du Chien.

FREIGHT SHIPMENTS ARE DROPPING OFF

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 9.—The tonnage of freight carried into and out of Milwaukee in 1911 is 557,591 tons less than it was the previous year, according to the new Chamber of Commerce report.

During the last season, 1,445,329 tons were eastbound while 6,061,164 tons were west bound. A total of 7,506,493 tons during 1911, against that of 8,064,084 tons in 1910 bear out the statement of Secretary H. A. Plumb that the marine activities were not satisfactory. He gives for the reason that grain went east by other routes than water carriers and that only 60 per cent of the lake fleets were in use. Mr. Plumb, like all of the transportation men in Milwaukee, looks for a record breaking year, despite the late opening.

LAD DISAPPEARS FROM DES MOINES

DES MOINES, Iowa, May 9.—The police of Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha and a dozen other cities in the Middle West today are asked by local police authorities to keep a lookout for Todd W. Wright, the 15-year-old son of R. A. Wright, city editor of the Register and Leader, who disappeared from his home here on April 25 under mysterious circumstances.

On that morning the lad started for school and had not been seen or heard from by relatives since. So far as can be ascertained he had had no trouble of any kind.

The boy is large of his age, tall and well built, has light blue eyes and light hair, and on the day of his disappearance he wore a light gray suit, light hat and blue flannel shirt.

RIVERMEN WANT SAFETY LIGHTS

WINONA, Minn., April 9.—Rivermen who are operating on the Mississippi river at the present time are complaining because the government lights will not be put into service until May 15. Captain W. L. Hunter of the steamer Ottumwa Belle, who passed Winona with a raft early yesterday, declared that if it is necessary the rivermen will get out a petition asking the government to light the lights immediately.

"The channel from Winona to Reed's Landing is exceptionally dangerous," the captain said, "and with the dams just below the top of the water, the government lights are badly needed. We lost two nights coming with a raft from Prescott to Winona and don't want to lose any more time."

BURGLARS STEAL $500 IN STAMPS

ABERDEEN, S. D., May 9.—Burglars robbed the postoffice at Conde at 2 o'clock yesterday morning, blowing open the safe and taking $500 in stamps and $25 in silver. Three strangers seen about town on Monday night are suspected. Tools to enter the building were taken from a railroad tool house. A gasoline speeder was stolen and on it the thieves traveled over the St. Louis road to within three miles of Aberdeen, when they ditched it.

KING GOES DOWN IN SUBMARINE

LONDON, May 9.—It was learned today that England's naval officers had ten anxious minutes yesterday when King George went down in a submarine boat. During the king's second day as active commander of the fleet he expressed the desire to take the plunge in a submarine. Submarine D4 was the vessel chosen and the king with several officers of his staff boarded the boat.

HOLD UP MAN WORKS WINONA

WINONA, Minn., May 9.—Walking to his home in the residence part of the city early today, William Colby, who completes his work at the St. Paul station at midnight, was held up at the point of a pistol and relieved of $3, all the money he carried with him. The holdup man chose a well-lighted corner, jumped from a secluded spot, backed his victim into the shade of a tree, ransacked his pockets and disappeared in the darkness. No arrests have been made.

The Danger After Grip
lies often in a run-down system. Weakness, nervousness, lack of appetite, energy and ambition, with disordered liver and kidney often follow an attack of this wretched disease. The greatest need then is Electric Bitters, the glorious tonic, blood purifier and regulator of stomach, liver and kidneys. Thousands have proved that they wonderfully strengthen the nerves, build up the system and restore to health and good spirits after an attack of Grip. If suffering try them. Only 50 cents. Sold and perfect satisfaction guaranteed by O. T. Erhart.

FOUR GIRLS SMOTHER

CAVEIN OF BLACK RIVER SAND PIT BURIES THREE SMALL SISTERS AND ONE OF THEIR PLAYMATES

APPLETON, Wis., May 9.—Four little girls were killed in the cavein of a sand pit at Black river, north of here, late yesterday according to information here today. The bodies were found last night by frantic parents who dug the still little forms six feet from under the treacherous sand banks in which the children had been playing. The dead are: Mary, aged 8, Bertha, 10, and Louise Barth, 13, sisters and Catherine Rosenberg, 10, a playmate.

The little girls were sent after the cows from the Barth farm early in the evening. Not returning at a late hour a search was instituted.

COATESVILLE ROUSED BY FIFTH OUTRAGE

COATESVILLE, Pa., May 9. — Posses of citizens, armed with every style of weapon and with minds inflamed to the lynching point, are searching today for the negro who caught 17 year old Lillian Hassen by the throat last night within a few blocks of her home and was only prevented from assaulting her when her clothing ripped and tattered, she tore herself away and ran. The girl's condition today is such that the attendance of a physician is necessary. The outrage is the fifth perpetrated by negroes on white women during the last six months.

STATE OFFICERS VISIT NORTHERN FORESTS

MADISON, Wis., May 9.—President Charles R. Van Hise, Dean Russell, Attorney General Bancroft and State Forester Griffith of the state board of forestry, accompanied by Governor McGovern and Prof. H. C. Taylor, professor of agricultural economics at the university, will leave Milwaukee Thursday for a trip through part of northern Wisconsin. One of the most important points to be considered will be the feasibility of a plan to lease rather than sell agricultural lands in the state forest reserve.

KETCHELL SLAYER TO SERVE OUT TERM

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., May 9.—Walter S. Dipley must serve his life sentence in the penitentiary for the murder of Champion Middleweight Stanley Ketchel in Webster county, but the case of Goldie Smith, convicted with him, was reversed by the state supreme court today and she is ordered discharged.

AMERICAN WINS FIGHT ON RANCH

MONTEREY, Mex., May 9.—An uprising of laborers employed on the plantation owned by Charles Hamilton, an American, in the state of Oaxaca, resulted in twenty-four of the attacking party being killed, according to reports received here today.

TO RETIRE FIVE OF THE BISHOPS

Reliable Authority Says High Church Officials Will Be Retired by Methodist Meeting

TO CHOOSE TEN NEW MEN

Five New Episcopal Residences Are to Be Named and Five Men Picked to Fill the Posts

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., May 9.—On reliable but unofficial authority it can be stated that five Methodist bishops are to be retired at the general conference now in session here. They are Bishops Warren, Moore, Cranston, Neely and Smith. On equally good authority it can be predicted that 10 to 12 new bishops will be created, and that new Episcopal residences will be designated in Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Kansas City, Helena and Los Angeles. Bishop Frank M. Bristol, now stationed in South America will be assigned to the United States and one of the new bishops sent to South America. Bishops Bashford and Lewis will be returned to China while Bishop Burt and one of the new bishops will go to Europe. Bishop Burt will reside at Zurich, Switzerland, while the other bishop to be assigned will reside at Rome.

The office of general secretary of the Epworth league and editorship of the Epworth Herald are to be combined. Dr. E. M. Randall of Puget Sound conference is the general secretary of the league and Dr. Stephen J. Herben of New York, editor of the Herald. One of these or both may lose their position by this union.

The north Ohio and east Ohio conferences have united under the name of Northeast Ohio conference with a membership of 115,000.

An enabling act has been past allowing the central Ohio and Cincinnati to unite. By this action Ohio will have two of the largest annual conferences in Methodism, having a membership of 240,000. The Ohio conference has a membership of 90,000.

The commission on supervision of colored conferences reported today that under the present condition of public sentiment it is impracticable to elect a colored general superintendent who shall preside over white conferences and supervise white work. Under the constitution a colored bishop cannot be elected exclusively for colored conferences. Any attempt to establish this by indirection is not feasible. The commission further recommends the advisability of submitting an amendment to the constitution to provide bishops for the negro race in the United States, limiting their episcopal supervision to the same.

A new form of social evangelism under the auspices of the general conference was authorizer to be conducted.

SPECIAL MEETING OF COUNTY BOARD

A special meeting of the county board has been called for May 21, for the purpose of organizing the new board. Several of the members of the former board of supervisors were replaced by the recent election. It is probable that the report of the committee appointed to tour the state and investigate into the success of the new uniform system of bookkeeping in use by other counties and which is advocated for La Crosse county by the state highway commission, will be made and action will doubtlessly be taken by the board to adopt or abandon the new project.

W. C. T. U. SERVICE HELD AT THE JAIL

The regular jail meeting of the local chapter of the W. C. T. U. was held Sunday afternoon. Rev. Klaus of the German M. E. church delivered the address, and a special song service opened the meeting. Solos were sung by Mrs. Wood, Miss Luedke and Miss Ender. Twenty-two prisoners were present, several of them asking for prayers on their behalf.

Now Look Out For Watch Troubles

It's the wisest thing you can do to have your watch examined at this time of the year. If it is in good order, we'll let it alone; if it needs repairing, we'll do it thoroughly at a moderate price.

Few watches are cleaned and oiled as they ought to be—once a year. People usually wait until something breaks. The other way is cheapest in the end and saves the watch.

BRYAN CHARGES CROOKED TACTICS

Says in 1908 Harmon Through a Friend Offered to Buy Commoner's Delegates

DELPHOS, Ohio, May 9.—Reiterating his charge that a close friend of Governor Harmon's on June 29, 1908, attempted to buy certain Ohio delegates who had been instructed for Bryan, William J. Bryan, early today prepared to wind up his tour of Ohio and leave for his home in Lincoln, Neb. Bryan spoke here this morning. His farewell speech at Van Wert at noon was the forty-ninth he has made in Ohio against Governor Harmon's candidacy.

Governor Harmon's denial of Mr. Bryan's charge that Harmon backers attempted to buy the support of Ohio delegates instructed to Bryan in 1908 caused the Nebraskan today to issue a second statement. In this Bryan says he will furnish the governor a copy of the letter through which the so-called "Harmon friend" offered to buy Bryan delegates, if the governor will say in writing that he does not believe such an attempt was made by any of his friends.

That Michael Devanney of Cincinnati, campaign manager for Governor Harmon in 1908, is the author of the letter in which William J. Bryan charges an attempt was made to buy delegates pledged to Bryan, was the assertion here today of Harvey Garber, of the democratic progressive league.

"Mr. Bryan authorized this announcement," said Garber, "and if Mr. Harmon declares that he believes Mr. Devanney did not write it, or if Mr. Devanney denies that he wrote it, I will make it public."

Bryan sprang the letter sensation in his anti-Harmon campaign which closed today at Van Wert, Ohio. He challenged the governor to say in writing that he believed no attempt by his friends had been made to buy the support of delegates instructed to Bryan in 1908.

When Governor Harmon was informed of Garber's statement, he announced that he had wired Bryan to make the letter public.

NEW YORK HOTELS FACE BIG STRIKE

NEW YORK, May 9.—Threats were made yesterday afternoon by officials of the Hotelworkers' union that concessions were not made to the striking waiters at the Hotel Beaumont they would "tie up" every hotel in the city. They declared that nearly all of the waiters, chambermaids, hall men and porters in the hotel belong to their organization and that, in addition, they could count on the active support of the Cooks' union, to which most of the kitchen help belongs.

A committee of the union called on Manager Fogg of the Belmont this afternoon and gave him until tomorrow to grant the demands that the fining system at the hotel be abolished, the head waiter discharged, and the waiters who struck reinstated. The hotel managers' association is standing by the Belmont.

CAN NOW DESTROY EVIDENCE LEGALLY

TRENTON, N. J., May 9.—There was filed in the federal court here today an order by Judges McPherson, Gray and Buffington, dismissing the injunction restraining the United States Steel corporation and its subsidiary companies with the exception of the American Steel & Wire company, from destroying evidence in the government's dissolution suit against the trust. The opinion says that no evidence was presented to substantiate the charge that officials of the corporation planned to destroy evidence excepting so far as the American teel & Wire company is concerned, and in its case the injunction is made permanent.

COUNTY SPENDS $1,000,000 ON WORK

FORT DODGE, Iowa, May 9.—Since the year 1906 Webster county has expended more than a million dollars for drainage. This does not include the broadcast laying of tile by farmers individually. It represents only what was expended for drainage ditches built under county supervision. According to recent statistics compiled by Auditor J. L. Hanrahan, $1,018,588.05 has gone into drainage. Thousands of acres have been reclaimed to the county by this lavish work and property values have gone skyhigh.

LA CROSSE GETS $2,700 OF INSURANCE FUND

MADISON, Wis., May. 9.—(Special.)—The city of La Crosse will receive a check for about $2,700 next week from the apportionment of a fund of $127,000 in fire insurance taxes by the state insurance department. The sum accrues from a two per cent tax upon premiums collected by fire insurance companies in the city.

GROCER SUES VANDERBILT

NEW YORK, May 9.—Alleging that William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., owes him $642.02 for groceries furnished for his personal use on the yacht Tarantula from April 22 until September 24, 1907, Albert Klenk, today brought suit against the millionaire.

BEGS FOR MONEY LANDS IN JAIL

Detectives Nab Youths who Pretend to Be Deaf and Dumb; Exhibit Fakir's Tricks

In possession of a bunch of fakir's tricks that would do credit to a professional confidence man and pleading guilty to a charge of begging, Claude O'Brien of Chicago was sentenced to thirty days in the county jail by Judge Brinley today. Dan Hill of Omaha, a companion, was arraigned with him on the same charge but he pleaded not guilty and his trial was set for Saturday. Both boys gave their age as 21 but neither of them look more than 18.

The young men were arrested by Detectives Joseph McGrath and W. H. Fitzsimmons late yesterday on lower Pearl street, where O'Brien was posing as a deaf and dumb man. He passed out cards intended to waken the sympathy of passers-by and according to the police his plea met with considerable attention. He is also said to have a trick of holding his arm so as to appear crippled. The imitation was so good that he "took in" even the detectives at the first glance. He had an acid scar on his arm, such as professional beggars have been known to inflict upon themselves, and when it was rubbed it became an additional evidence that he was in need of the sympathy and especially the money of such as happened to notice him.

A bunch of the same kind of cards was found in the pockets of Hill also but he claims that he found them on the road to La Crescent.

O'Brien is said by the police to have "made" La Crosse several times before.

DALLAS, Texas, May 9.—Incomplete returns received from the county conventions held on Tuesday indicate that Roosevelt and Wilson will get the Texas delegates to the republican and democratic national conventions. Returns early today give Roosevelt 63 1-2 votes in the state convention and Taft 36 1-2. The Taft forces will claim they will carry the state convention, as there will be at least 12 contesting delegates and 36 counties will send uninstructed delegates.

Returns from 176 out of 250 counties give Wilson, 328 5-6 instructed votes, sixteen more than the number required to control the convention. Harmon in the same counties has 109 2-3 and Clark 39 1-2.

* * * *

WASHINGTON, May 9.—Managers of presidential candidates made the following claims of delegates up to and including today:

Republicans—Delegates in convention, 1,076; necessary to choice, 539; claimed for Taft, 483; claimed for Roosevelt, 347; conceded by Taft managers to Roosevelt, 229; conceded by Roosevelt managers to Taft, 137; instructed for La Follette, 36; instructed for Cummins, 10; contested by Taft managers, 12; contested by Roosevelt managers, 174.

Democrats—Delegates in convention, 1,0002; necessary to choice, 729; claimed for Clark, 275; claimed for Wilson, 174; conceded to Clark by Wilson managers, 164; conceded to Wilson by Clark manakers, 102; instructed for Underwood, 84; instructed for Marshall, 30; instructed for Burke, 10; instructed for Baldwin, 14; claimed for Harmon, 4; uninstructed, 114.

* * * *

CHEYENNE, Wyo., May 9.—Latest reports today from county conventions throughout Wyoming show that Taft will control the republican state convention next week. Park, Fremont and Carbon instructed for Taft. Others indorsed the Taft administration. Democratic county delegates mostly are uninstructed, the sentiment being nearly equally divided between Wilson and Clark.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, May 9.—Taft leaders in Columbus today were jubilant over the enthusiastic reception given the president here, where last night he concluded his three days' campaign and returned to Washington. Yesterday was one of the most strenuous campaign days of his career. He addressed more than 60,000 persons in making fifteen speeches. Returning to Ohio next Monday morning the president will remain until after the primaries, May 21, campaigning each intervening day.

Cook's Accidental Discovery.

One of the best ways of cooking potatoes was accidentally discovered through the unpunctuality of a train. When the line from Paris to St. Germain was opened the first train carried an official party for whom lunch was ordered.

The meal was fixed for noon, and shortly before that hour the potatoes were put on to fry. A few minutes afterward a message came that the train would probably be delayed for an hour, so the potatoes were taken off the fire, but left in the pan. Then came a second message. "Train just arriving," and the potatoes were hurriedly put back to fry again.

When the party sat down to lunch the potatoes were brought on with the steak. Each chip was then found to be blown out like a small, crisp, golden balloon, to the delight of the guests. The cook, without knowing it, had invented pommes de terre soufflees.

WOMAN URGES MEAT INQUIRY

Mrs. C. B. Crane Asks the Moss Committee to Take Up Rep. Nelson's Investigation

WASHINGTON, May 9.—Assailing Secretary of Agriculture Wilson for his alleged lax enforcement of the federal meat inspection law, and pleading that consumers be protected from "diseased, unsound, unwholesome meats, unfit for human consumption," Mrs. Caroline Bartlett Crane of Kalamazoo, Mich., yesterday urged the Moss investigating committee of the house to undertake the probe urged by Representative Nelson of Wisconsin.

Mrs. Crane charged that the careful ante-mortem inspection of cattle, provided in the law, has been ignored.

"Animals are merely driven by the inspectors, several abreast," she declared. "The inspection is simply done at the request of the packers and only for the purpose of enabling them to avoid buying cattle that would prove a loss. I asked many of the inspectors in the Chicago yards about it and got this reply: 'It is absurd and preposterous for the department to make claims of enforcing the ante-mortem inspection regulations.'"

Mrs. Crane read a pamphlet published by Secretary Wilson's order which she declared was "a brief for the packers, published at the government's expense."

"The publication," she explained, "was a boost for the packers. It describes a rigid meat inspection service which does not exist. The packers have from the very beginning rigorously opposed any form of inspection and regulation. I regard it as an ignoble, a disgraceful condition when a government reports makes it appear that the packers welcome inspections. The attitude is that the packers would not do anything wrong.

"Lard pails are manufactured by the companies embossed with the legend 'United States inspected and passed.' This is not in accord with the strict interpretation of the law."

YEGGS OVERLOOK THOUSANDS IN BANK

ROCKEFELLER, Ill., May 9. — Yeggs who forced an entrance into the First National bank here early today, blew the safe and escaped with $100 in silver. They evidently did not open an inner compartment which contained several thousand dollars in bills and securities. A horse and buggy which the robbers had stolen was found this afternoon at Highland park, several miles from here.

Man's Affections.

In a recent case in which the question of affection was an important issue, a judge spoke wisely as a philosopher. "A man's affection for a woman," said the modern Solomon, "is shown by his willingness to take trouble in her behalf, to do little services for her, to do with a willing hand that which a man not in love would deem tiresome, troublesome and disquieting."

World's Good Things For All.

Along all our pathways sweet flowers are blossoming, if we will only stop to pluck them and smell their fragrance. In every meadow birds are warbling, calling to their mates and soaring into the blue, if we only stop our grumbling long enough to hear them.—Minot J. Savage, D. D.

received at the BERGH garage and they are fast going out again. More BUICKS to arrive soon. Just now we are in shape to take care of any order that may be given us for Buick cars, but soon our aliotment will be exhausted and we will then not be able to get any more Buick cars for this year, in fact, we would not get them now had we not contracted for these cars early last summer and specified our date of delivery last December. That is why we are getting cars now and are able to fill orders promptly.

EXPLOSION KILLS FIVE

GAS WRECKS BLAST FURNACE OF AMERICAN STEEL AND WIRE COMPANY AT CLEVELAND

CLEVELAND, May 9.—Five men were killed and eleven injured here early today when an explosion of gas wrecked a blast furnace of the American Steel and Wire company. The men were working inside of the furnace and moving a blowpipe preparatory to closing down the furnace.

Two of the injured are in a dying condition at the hospital. Those killed outright were in the furnace. The others were grouped about the structure. The explosion scattered red hot coke over the group, setting fire to the clothes of some.

OUTCASTS ATTEND MUELLER FUNERAL

The Outcasts suspended practice this afternoon and kept away from the baseball park, going in a body to the funeral of Alfred T. Mueller, well-known local athlete who died suddenly at his home Tuesday morning.

The funeral was held this afternoon at 2:30 from the residence of Emil T. Mueller, 211 South Sixth street. Representatives of many of the organizations to which Mr. Mueller belonged attended the last services in his memory. Burial was made in Oak Grove cemetery.

INSURGENTS KICK ON WOODMEN BILL

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 9.—Senator John Dailey of Peoria had his Modern Woodmen compromise bill all ready for introduction when the senate met this morning, but he did not offer it. He was told by some of the "insurgents" of the order, who flocked to the capitol, that they did not want the measure. He is having a conference with them this afternoon.

FIRST STRENGTH TEST

FEDERALS AND REBELS EXPECTED TO CLASH BEFORE TORREON TODAY AFTER MUCH SKIRMISHING

EAGLE PASS, Texas, May 9.—The first real test of strength between the rebels and federals in the vicinity of Torreon is expected today. Two federal commands have taken up positions in Mapimi and Bermedjillo, small towns just outside of Torreon. Orozco has ordered the rebels to advance and attack. If defeated the federals will fall back into Torreon proper and the siege of that place will then begin in earnest. There has been considerable skirmishing between the two forces for the past couplpe of days, but the first battle will come at Bermedjillo and Mapimi.

It is expected that General Orozco will press the attack upon Torreon as rapidly as possible. Being in a hostile country, it is difficult for him to secure rations and he also charges that as the federals retreated they poisoned all the water between Bermedjillo and Torreon. Seventy troopers under General Salazar have died from drinking the water, Orozco declares, and several thousand horses have been lost.

ROWDYISM IN PARK IS THE COMPLAINT

Rowdyism on the part of boys and young men while playing baseball in Copeland park has been brought to the attention of Park Commissioner J. H. Forrer, who today declared that steps will be taken to end this immediately. If the young men in question continue their ungentlemanly conduct, he declares, the diamond will be abandoned and baseball will not be permitted in the park. As a preliminary measure he will inquire into the conduct of all teams applying for the use of the diamond, and will refuse all who do not conduct themselves properly.

Chicago Grain Letter

CHICAGO, May 9.—Following the break in wheat prices that brought futures down, on account of the prospects of a better crop than expected, the market stiffened today, and after opening a little higher than at Wednesday's close, both July and September made steady advances on good buying.

Corn showed strong tendencies from the start today, and prices ranged higher than during yesterday's trading.

Strength in the other grain prices helped oats and slight advances were made in futures during the day.

Provisions were steady to a few cents lower.

COACH RICHARDS QUITS WISCONSIN

REFUSES TO MARK THE TIME

Will Not Act as Figure Head While Professors Try to Kill Athletic Work

MADISON, Wis., May 9.—John R. Richards, for the past year football and baseball coach of the University of Wisconsin, has tendered his resignation to Director Ehler of the physical education department. The resignation is to take effect at the end of Coach Richard's contract which terminates at the end of the summer session this year.

Coach Richards' action came as a complete surprise to the members of the student body and was the result of the latest action of the faculty in refusing to allow freshmen to be excused from military drill. He stated this morning that when it came a time that the faculty upheld the contentions of one outside of the institution as against an alumnus, it was time to quit.

He claims that the faculty to a man is opposed to competitive athletics, and that conditions are far worse here at the present time than they were a few years ago, when football was practically wiped off the map.

Mr. Richards' resignation, offered to George W. Ehler, director of physical training, follows:

"Director George Ehler, University of Wisconsin.—Dear Mr. Ehler: I am writing to notify you of my desire to sever my connections with the University of Wisconsin. I shall be pleased to be released after the close of the summer session, to-wit, August 2, 1912.

"In asking you to accept my resignation I feel that some statement is due to you. In saying that I feel that my field of usefulness is too limited, however, I think you will agree that I have stated the whole case. The recent actions of those who legislate on things athletic in refusing to allow the students to be excused from military drill makes it absolutely impossible to put athletics on an efficient basis—at least I feel so. I am still an alumnus of Wisconsin and a loyal one, and it is with regret that I leave. I made sacrifices to come and I had hoped for opportunities to work, but things that interfere appear to be held as more important and I do not care to stay and mark time.

"I wish to thank you for our very pleasant personal relations and for your cordial co-operation in my work while I have been here. I know that you have personally opposed the military restrictions in competitive athletics but have not been able to resent them.

"I regret leaving the students and dropping of plans and aspirations of many who have worked with me and have become my friends. They are the real stuff, just as good as ever, and will perform well in all activities if given a chance.

"JOHN R. RICHARDS."

FRESHIES WILL GET WATER CURE

MADISON, Wis., May 9. — The old "lake penalty" for freshmen who do not obey university traditions, is to be imposed after several years of oblivision. The refusal of a large number of the first year men to live up to the tradition, which compels every freshman to wear the prescribed green cap, has aroused the upper classmen. The recommendation that the old penalty be brought back is made by the freshman class itself, which has drawn up resolutions to the effect that violators be given the "water cure" by other members of their class.

COULON BEAT AN ASPIRANT BADLY

NEW YORK, May 9.—Young Solzberg of Brooklyn, charged up to experience today one big beating he received at the hands of bantam Champion Johnny Coulon of Chicago. After the first minute of fighting the contender realized he was outclassed and thereafter figured only on lasting ten rounds. Coulon showed his old-time dazzling speed and slugging powers, but did not seem to have his "K. O." wing working right, and failed to get over the sleep producing haymaker.

DISCOVER BASEBALL POOLS IN GOTHAM

NEW YORK, May 9.—The belated discovery of baseball pools has aroused the authorities and today steps are being taken here to bring about the end of such gambling. Last year some gamblers attempted the same thing. Then they were bolder and started off by sending booklets, describing their plans, through the mails. A town in Pennsylvania was selected as the home of the gambling corporation and offices were being opened for business when the officers of the department of justice, from Washington arrived.

The preliminary investigation here has discovered that baseball pool today is as firmly established in New York as was the policy game which ruthlessly robbed New York's poor in the past before it was killed.

The authorities here have been unable up to the present to find any central organization or any head to this newest gambling scheme. Office boys, elevator men, bartenders and barbers are acting as agents, but the police appear to be unable to find the chiefs.

SKY-BOATS ON SHOW

NEW YORK, May 9.—All the latest confections in heavenly runabouts, carryalls, carriages and coupes and the rest will be on parade—on the ground—at Grand Central Palace when the aero show opens tonight. The aeroplane salesman, not yet popularly familiar, will be there.

GENUINE Old Country GREEN SOAP

THE OLYMPIC TEAM NEEDS MORE CASH

NEW YORK, May 9.—The American Olympic committee faces a desperate situation today as the result of the small public support for the expense fund. The committee must either devise some method of bringing in the money with which to pay the expenses of the team or send an inferior, and incompetent team to Sweden. With a total contribution of $80 for yesterday the minimum requirement of every day from now on until the team sails on June 8, is $1,500.

MICHIGAN VS. SYRACUSE

ANN ARBOR, Mich., May 9.—The University of Michigan baseball team will face the hardest proposition of the season when it lines up against the Syracuse nine this afternoon on Ferry field. The easterners are heralded as world beaters while the Wolverines have also had a very successful season so far.

WELCOME FLYNN WITH BRASS BAND

PUEBLO, Colo., May 9.—Jim Flynn, heavyweight, upon his return to his home town, was met at the union station with a brass band, given a royal welcome and led a parade through the business section of the city. Soon after jumping into an automobile he spied in the dense crowd on the sidewalk a familiar face that caused him to rise high in the machine and throw a kiss in that direction. Flynn's mother returned the token of love and the crowd that saw the display of affection cheered the big fighter to the echo. Today he will leave for Las Vegas to go into training.

KILBANE AMAZES SPORTS

RYE, N. Y., May 9.—Johnny Kilbane of Cleveland, featherweight champion, has the New York sports buffaloed. Accustomed to wind jammers in the champion class, Kilbane's modesty and self-restraint is causing wonder. He is also unlike the average "champion," working his head off getting in shape for his coming bout with Frankie Burns.

WAUSAU STARTS SEASON

The opening day of the Wausau club of the Wisconsin-Illinois league at Wausau will take place Monday, May 13, according to the schedule recently issued. Invitations are being sent to the officers of neighboring leagues to attend the opening game.

TO ROW NAVY

NEW YORK, May 9.—Shaping up stronger than in many years, the Columbia varsity crew left today for Annapolis, where on Saturday the blue and white eight will race the navy.

NAVY CHAMPS TO FIGHT

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 9.—Arrangements were today made for a ten round match here on May 17 between Ray Temple and Ivan Kinney, the latter lightweight champion of the United States navy. Kinney is here on a furlough.

Wisconsin-Illinois League

Oshkosh at Aurora.
Appleton at Racine.
Wausau at Madison.
Green Bay at Rockford.

WATCHING THE SCOREBOARD

Packing six hits into the round that included Johnnie Bates' triple, the Reds made it easy to wander right along with their winning streak.

St. Louis herded about all its available ball players into the lot in the attempt to stop the Giants and almost did so, but Matty was rushed in and saved the day.

Just when Wolverton and his crippled Highlanders have a chance with a tail-end team it rains all day long and the Tigers came along for a hard series.

Gossips have Hal Chase traded for Walter Johnson or Tris Speaker, or a few other good players just because he is on the sick list.

We want you to try this CHI-NAMEL VARNISH

WE have the agency for this line of Varnish, made for all purposes, which is so far ahead of any varnish ever sold in this community, that we are making this unusual offer so you can convince yourself that our statement is correct. Stains and varnishes in one operation. Hides scratches and mars. This varnish is Scratch-proof, Heat-proof and Water-proof. Will not turn white. Can be washed with hot water. For linoleum and oil cloth it cannot be beat. Try it on your floors and you will use no other. Don't let the second-hand man get your old furniture, because Chi-Namel will mend ANYTHING but a broken joint.

Another feature we want to show you is the Chi-Namel Ready-to-use Graining Process, by which you can cover all blemishes in your old floors, and make them any color you wish as well as produce the grain of oak or other woods. All cracks in floors made to disappear and wide boards made to represent narrow hard wood. All this done at a cost of less than 2 cents a square foot.

You Owe it To Yourself to Take Advantage of This Offer.
